

Columbia Basin Culture Tour

July 29 & 30, 2023

a project of the Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance

Terms and Conditions

By completing the registration form, you (and the organization, venue or other participants that you're representing) indicate that you're authorized to enter into this agreement and that all participants understand and agree to the following:

1. You will be at the venue on July 29 and 30 from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
2. You will plan to educate the public through explanation, exhibition, performance or demonstration.
3. You will either waive the admission fee during the event (if you normally have one) or feature a special event, display or performance that is available for free to the public.
4. If you're an art gallery, your participants must have an appropriate space to exhibit artwork or host performances, and you must feature the work of Columbia Basin artists during the weekend.
5. You will use Columbia Basin Culture Tour signage for your venue.
6. You will secure applicable releases, permissions and rights for all submitted images, photos and videos. Participants grant the right for all such items to be used in print and online by us, and shared with tourism and media outlets, to promote the event, the activities of the Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance and West Kootenay Regional Arts Council (the coordinators of this event) and Columbia Basin Trust (the primary funder of this event).
7. You consent to the public release of applicable personal contact information, as noted on the registration form, to promote your participation in the event.
8. You will help promote your involvement in the event by distributing most of your copies of the Columbia Basin Culture Tour Directory (and any additional promotional materials) in your community before the event, and displaying a few copies of the directory at your venue during the event.
9. You are solely responsible for the safe creation, development, installation and presentation of exhibitions, performances and demonstrations. You will ensure your location is safe for the public to visit and has necessary safety equipment and signage. You will not serve alcohol or intoxicating substances unless your venue is legally licensed and insured to do so. You will purchase any applicable business license or insurance.
10. You are authorized to present, perform, exhibit or sell the works you feature during the event. You will obtain all relevant written agreements, releases, permissions and waivers with respect to confidentiality, privacy, ownership and copyright.
11. You will follow all local, federal and provincial government regulations and directives, including those related to public safety and COVID-19.
12. If you cancel before April 15, 2023, you will obtain refund. After that date, the directory and map are in production and we can't remove a listing, even if you cancel.
13. If we have to cancel the event at any time—or have to postpone the event and you can't participate on the new dates—you will receive a refund.
14. You will not hold the West Kootenay Regional Arts Council, the Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance or Columbia Basin Trust—or any of their members, staff, contractors or volunteers—liable for any damage, loss or injury to people or property sustained through incidents related to the event, such as accidents, illness, injury, damage, theft or fire.
