ADVERTISING RATES

For Issue #45

May 2024 – September 2024

Here is your chance to be part of this area's vibrant, active, and always interesting cultural scene!

Established in 2002 as the premier arts, culture and heritage voice for the region, ARTiculate provides thoughtful and relevant coverage of local artists, writers, performers, heritage, and cultural issues important to our region.

ARTiculate contains original features and reviews by local writers, bringing our communities closer together.

Our quality design, layout and printing is a great way to promote your business, organization or activities while also supporting the development of local culture!

This issue will include events, news and profiles covering the entire Kootenay - Columbia region from Grand Forks to Fernie, Creston to Valemount.

Targeted to a wide audience interested in arts, culture and heritage, ARTiculate is a free publication with targeted distribution of 10-13,000 copies at public locations throughout the entire region.

Read by locals and tourists alike, each issue is also posted online and has a long shelf life.

We have dedicated readers and continually receive great feedback about our stories and design.
